Before we ask you any questions, you must understand your rights.

You have the right to remain silent.

Anything you say can be used against you in court.

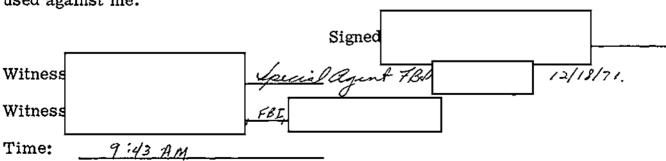

You have the right to talk to a lawyer for advice before we ask you any questions and to have him with you during questioning.

If you cannot afford a lawyer, one will be appointed for you before any questioning if you wish.

If you decide to answer questions now without a lawyer present, you will still have the right to stop answering at any time. You also have the right to stop answering at any time until you talk to a lawyer.

WAIVER OF RIGHTS

I have read this statement of my rights and I understand what my rights are. I am willing to make a statement and answer questions. I do not want a lawyer at this time. I understand and know what I am doing. No promises or threats have been made to me and no pressure or coercion of any kind has been used against me.

A production of THE D.B. COOPER PROJECT was part of The Cricket Theatre's Works-In-Progress Series 1977-78.

The Playwright

The Father Song Aaron, Luke

The former Producing Director of Boston's Calliope Theatre, John Orlock came to Minneapolis in 1975 after two years on the faculty of the Department of Theatre and Film at Pennsylvania State University, where he was a member of their professional acting program. Currently, he teaches acting at the College of St. Thomas as well as at The Theatre Studio in Minneapolis. He is also a working Resident Playwright with the Playwrights Lab, and in that capacity has conducted a number of writing workshops both locally and at colleges throughout the country. Mr. Orlock's work as a playwright has been published by Baker's Plays, with productions Off-Off-Broadway and at major regional theatres. INDULGENCES IN THE LOUISVILLE HAREM, which received its Area Premiere at the Cricket Theatre last season, will be produced by the Oregon Shakespeare Festival this summer. His play about baton twirling, THE FLEECE, toured throughout England in spring of last year. THE D.B. COOPER PROJECT is his first musical. In August, 1979, Mr. Orlock will assume his duties as the new Literary Manager for The Cricket Theatre.

Smoking permitted in the lobby only. No food, drink or cameras are permitted in the theatre. Latecomers will be seated in their appropriate seats only at scene breaks at the discretion of the management.

The Cast

DON AMENDOLIA (Aaron) is making his third appearance at The Cricket Theatre having previously been seen as He in AND WHERE SHE STOPS NOBODY KNOWS and as Harry in A TRIBUTE TO LILI LAMONT. He has appeared as a guest artist at Actors Theatre of St. Paul and has performed often at Chanhassen Dinner Theatre where he has played Ben in THE SUNSHINE BOYS, Camille in A FLEA IN HER EAR, Sancho in MAN OF LA MANCHA and has just concluded a seven month run as George in SAME TIME, NEXT YEAR with Jane Murray. At The Guthrie Theatre Mr. Amendolia portrayed Ernest in DESIGN FOR LIVING and Mr. Fezziwig in A CHRISTMAS CAROL. In addition to acting Mr. Amendolia is a former Associate Producer for N.E.T. Television and Casting Director of A.T. & T. Films. He was also the Road Manager for Joey Heatherton and the Off-Broadway Treasurer for the production of EL GRANDE DE COCA COLA.

CAMILLE GIFFORD (Naomi) returns to The Cricket Theatre from Los Angeles where she lives with her novelist husband, Thomas Gifford. Other Cricket performances include roles in AND WHERE SHE STOPS NOBODY KNOWS, THE MARTIAN CHRONICLES, 6 RMS RIV VU, PROMENADE, THE SHADOW BOX and RED ROVER, RED ROVER. Most recently she was seen as Margaret in The Cricket Theatre's production of MOURNING PICTURES and in a staging of THE CHERRY ORCHARD in Los Angeles. In a departure from acting, Ms. Gifford this season directed productions of THE MANDRAKE and ANDROCLES AND THE LION for Actors Theatre of St. Paul.

JANE MURRAY (Betty) is making her first performance at The Cricket Theatre. Locally, she has been featured at Chanhassen Dinner Theatre as Amy in COMPANY, Sharon in FINIAN'S RAINBOW, and has just completed a year's run in SAME TIME, NEXT YEAR. During The Guthrie Theater's 1976-77 season, she portrayed Mrs. Molloy in THE MATCHMAKER, Mae in CAT ON A HOT TIN ROOF and Nurse Sweet in THE NATIONAL HEALTH. At Guthrie 2 she played Rona in KENNEDY'S CHILDREN. Originally from Los Angeles, Ms. Murray has just finished work on her first screen appearance in which she narrated a sequence for her father's soon-to-be-released film KEN MURRAY—SHOOTING STARS.

DOLORES NOAH (Mardi) has previously been seen at The Cricket Theatre as the Servant in PROMENADE and as the Singer in this season's production of MOURNING PICTURES. Other acting credits include major roles in GUYS AND DOLLS, OH! COWARD and COMPANY at Chanhassen Dinner Theatre. Ms. Noah has also appeared with the Detroit Grand Opera Association where she sang lead roles in Kurt Weill's DER JASAGER and Donizetti's IL COMPANELLA.

CLIVE ROSENGREN (George/Luke) has become a familiar face on The Cricket Stage having previously appeared in twelve Cricket productions. Among the roles he has played are Sgt. Cokes in STREAMERS, Joe in THE SHADOW BOX, L.D. Alexander in THE LAST MEETING OF THE KNIGHTS OF THE WHITE MAGNOLIA, and Harry Bales in THE SEA HORSE. This season he portrayed the King in SORT OF A LOVE SONG and Teddy in A BREEZE FROM THE GULF. In addition to his work at The Cricket, Mr. Rosengren has acted with The Great Lakes Shakespeare Festival, Michigan's Meadow Brook Theatre, The Persephone Theatre in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, and Seattle's Cirque Dinner Theatre. Locally, Mr. Rosengren has appeared at Actors Theatre of St. Paul and Mixed Blood Theatre where he played Willy Loman in DEATH OF A SALESMAN. He was most recently seen in Chanhassen Dinner Theatre's production of LOOT in the role of Truscott.

FRED THOMPSON (Ben) is making his third appearance at The Cricket Theatre. Last season he was seen as Johnny Meeghan in THE TRIP BACK DOWN and as Eddie in RED ROVER, RED ROVER. This season he played Tournel in A FLEA IN HER EAR at Miami's Coconut Grove Playhouse and Geoffrey at Atlanta's Alliance Theatre's production of ABSURD PERSON SINGULAR. Mr. Thompson spent five seasons at Michigan's Meadow Brook Theatre where he played everything from Shakespeare to Shaffer.

The Producing Director

Upon returning from his discovery of the headwaters of the Lualaba at age 16 Bill Semans decided firmly on a career in the fabulous arc-welding field. This passion existed until he also discovered that precious few arcs are being contructed these days, much less welded. From there, of course, it was an easy transition into theatre where many things are welded if you have the equipment which is often expensive unless one steals it. Bill is a graduate of the Bide-A-Wee Day school, Paticoat Tech and the Madame Hoernbecker School of Knowledge from whence he obtained an M.A. in Nocturnal Wombat Viewing with oak leaf cluster. During his bachelor days he could often be spotted scattering seeds and leading an all-girl aphid choir in Stravinsky's Le Sacre Du Aphid Printemps with cicada backup on percussion. Hobbies? Everyone has hobbies. Bill tends to dress and clean up before work and prefers a light perfume during daylight hours and camisoles of Spanish voille or vole replete with string tie, jodphurs and ormolu tiara. Contrary to popular legend Bill did not start The Cricket. In point of fact, he was driving between Joplin, Mo. and the Natchez Trace at the precise moment of The Cricket's founding by Welander Quist as a NE auxiliary to his far-flung empire which bears only a nodding acquaintance with Land-O-Nod. His hobbies? Of course, Bill's wife Gloriana and his two sons, Rark and Pudif reside in a comely nest of branches and twigs gaily festooned with bits of pastel yarn produced on the shores of Sturgeon Lake by itinerant weavers who later formed a singing group by a different name. Having become a legend, Bill has this to say about his future: "Bleak." Others, asked to comment on that subject have all responded with "bleak" making a unified chorus of praise and hope for this nearly 7 ft. gaunt man who can and will play the heron in your next production of TIME OUT FOR GINGER UP IN MABEL'S ROOM MURDER or THE LIFE OF DON STOLZ. Any questions regarding Bill or the myriad small lice nesting in his beard should be referred to H.V. Kaltenborn, NBC Red Network, Little Ossipee, N.H. Those who send 5¢ or 10¢ (whichever is larger) will receive a copy of this suitable for hanging from some part of your anatomy to be selected by our panel.

The Music Director/Arranger

The Choreographer

John Command is a highly experienced dancer and choreographer. He has appeared in and/or choreographed twenty-six shows at the Chanhassen Dinner Theatre complex from their first show in 1968, HOW TO SUCCEED IN BUSINES WITHOUT REALLY TRYING, to their current production of CAMELOT. Most recently, Mr. Command choreographed THE GARFIELD NUDE for Chimera Theatre. In addition, he teaches at Minnesota Dance Theatre and Nova Dance Center in Burnsville and is the choreographer for Minneapolis' Edgewater 8. A man of many interests, Mr. Command also runs The City Lakes Daily and sells real estate with Burnet Realty. During spare moments he indulges in bridge and walking his dogs, Buster and Missy.

Jimmie Martin is a noted pianist and composer and has been musical director for such musicals as THE FANTASTIKS, THE FLOWER DRUM SONG and MY FAIR LADY. Recently, his work was seen in Chanhassen's production of OH! COWARD and at The Cricket Theatre where he was musical director for this season's production of MOURNING PICTURES. Also an actor/singer, Mr. Martin has portrayed Herman in MOST HAPPY FELLA and has played numerous leads in Gilbert and Sullivan operettas. His wide ranging interests include writing commercials, composing music for industrial films, arranging music for special programs in the Twin Cities, horseback riding, and crocheting and embroidering for his family. Mr. Martin majored in music education, piano and organ at the University of Michigan. (continued)

The Artistic Director

F. Lou Salerni arrived at the doorstep of The Cricket Theatre in 1977 straight from the pages of Who's Who in the West. In his many faceted career he has written several plays, won three acting awards, a special award for playwrighting and one for directing plus the Schubert Playwrighting Fellowship. Lou has an extensive background in teaching and directing: The Banff School of Fine Arts, The University of Oregon, Kansas State Teachers College and Rhodesia, where he spent 1973 as national guest-artist-in residence, being accused of the yearlong draught and labeled "the controversial Lou Salerni."

He also possesses the single claim to fame that while shooting a scene in the film SASQUATCH he was attacked by an 800 pound grizzly bear who misunderstood the director's "cut" cue to mean "eat the skinny Italian."

Having directed over a dozen productions for The Cricket Theatre including ARTICHOKE, THE LAST MEETING OF THE KNIGHTS OF THE WHITE MAGNOLIA, WHO'S AFRAID OF VIRGINIA WOOLF?, STREAMERS, A BREEZE FROM THE GULF and THE D.B. COOPER PROJECT, he has been labeled "the best director in the Twin Cities", "a genius" and "the perfect director."

He continually perseveres in his never-ending quest to find a good Italian restaurant in the Twin Cities, to stay on top of his house remodeling projects, keep his fingers out of Cuisinart blades, and direct plays of merit.

He's earned the respect and admiration of actors and playwrights across the country and gives The Cricket the artistic vision and focus that makes it one of the most vital theatres in the country.

YOUR RIGHTS

Before we ask you any questions, you must understand your rights.

You have the right to remain silent.

Anything you say can be used against you in court.

You have the right to talk to a lawyer for advice before we ask you any questions and to have him with you during questioning.

If you cannot afford a lawyer, one will be appointed for you before any questioning if you wish.

If you decide to answer questions now without a lawyer present, you will still have the right to stop answering at any time. You also have the right to stop answering at any time until you talk to a lawyer.

Do you fully understand what you have just been told?

WAIVER OF RIGHTS

I have read this statement of my rights and I dider-stand what my rights are. I am willing to make a statement and answer questions. I do not want a lawyer at this time. I understand and know what I am doing. No promises or threats have been made to me and no pressure or coercion of any kind readers to help crack the mystery behind one of the great unsolved crimes of the past 25 years who and where is skyjacker D.B. Cooper?

A man using that name hijacked a Settiner in 1971 and parachuted into the darkness over Oregon, carrying $200,000 in cash with him. No trace of him or the money has ever been craggy foothills, almost impenetrable

"Readers of The ENQUIRER could help us solve the mystery," sald FBI Agent Ralph Rimmelshach, who has been working on the case since hijacking. the "Since we haven't found him, the case is still open and still we're looking."

Cooper — a tail, dark-complexioned man neatly dressed in a business suit, topcoat and brown exfords,— hijacked a Portland-to-Seattle jet on the eveping of Nov. 24, 1971.

He demanded that 10,000 $20-bills be delivered to him at Scattle along with four parachutes — or he would blow up the plane.

Airline officials complied with his demand. In return, Cooper allowed the 36 passengers and two of the three stewardesses to leave the plane.

- He then ordered the pilot to fly south to Reno, Nev., at 200 mph at 10,000 feet with the wing Haps down. He ordered the crew members to stay in the cockpit.

A few minutes later in the dark skies

The FBI has asked ENQUIRER; jet's rear boarding ramp and jumped out, wearing one of the parachates.

> The plane was flying at 196 mph, the temperature was 7 degrees below zero and there were winds of up to 50 mph. As far as is known, Cooper wore no goggles or protective clothing:

> Using a computer, the FBI calculated he parachuted into a 24-square-mile area on the Washington-Oregon border near the rugged shores of Lake Merwin in an area of dense woods and in many places.

> "For him to have gotten down uninjured would have been a tremendous feat or a tremendous stroke of luck, said Himmelsbach.

> If Cooper died that night, no one has ever admitted finding his body or the $200,000 ransom.

> "Let's assume Cooper didn't survive the jump," Himmelsbach said in explaining how ENQUIRER readers could help.

> "That means there is someone somewhere who went missing about that time and has never returned. And even if Cooper did survive, he may not have returned to his family.

> "So, we'd be interested in information from ENQUIRER readers about any missing person who might fit Cooper's description.

> "If he did survive the jump, that means that unless he is very careful about spending the money a little at a time, he might be noticeable by any changes in his life-style. If he was not a wealthy man and he started making purchases beyond his means, then this is semething to look for.

> "ENQUIRER readers, bank tellers and others who regularly handle money, also could help by scanning their $20 bills and checking them against the list of missing bills."

Anyone who might have specific in- dress and phone number. over Oregon, Cooper unlatched the formation that might help solve this mystery should call or write their local police or FBI office or write to: Special Agent in Charge, FBI, 915 Second Avenue, Seattle, Wash. 98174.

Dear

First, let me assure you: I am D.B. Cooper, the individual who completed the skyjacking in 1969. Of course, you -- and any of your colleagues -- may choose to disbelieve this: our society is comprised of individuals who, strangely enough, believe in that which is untrue, disbelieve in that which is fact.

Nevertheless, I have decided that it is time for a bit of communication. Somewhat rather smugly observing the minor fanfare my tenyear anniversary caused in the media this November, I suddenly realized that I wanted people to know I was still alive -- and that I had, in fact, successfully eluded the police and lived -- very nicely, I might add -- on the proceeds of my adventure.

I moved to Atlanta more than five years ago and began watching your newscasts. You seemed to have a "no-nonsense" approach to the news which I can appreciate -- and thus, when I finally decided to communicate w/ the outside world, you appeared the natural choice.

I'd like to clear up two items concerning my little event. First, I did it for the sheer sake of adventure, nothing more. And this adventure was both a mental & physical challange -- which leads me to my second item: how I eluded the police. While I shall not detail the incident -- at least not now -- I will say that it was a simple case of using simplicity when everyone else concentrated on complexity. If the police ever do discover how I did it, they will feel a bit foolish. And I even left a bit of a clue, which still remains in the area: I was back there this past summer.

you have a wonderful city and I have enjoyed my stay. I own a house in the city and am delighted with the many cultural opportunities here. Indeed, I hope to remain in Atlanta for at least a few more years.

Again, whether or not you believe this is "the real thing" does not concern me. I am very much aware that it is & simply wished a bit of communication with the outside world. I might call you sometime in the future ... and if so, I have enclosed an index card with something typed on it: when I call, I will identify myself by what has been typed. In addition, you can be assured of only one "authentic" D.B. Cooper.

DB Cooper-38511

I wish you a Happy New Year and thank you for this opportunity to communicate after 10 years...

While I shall not detail the incident -- at least not now -- I will say that it was a simple case of using simplicity when everyone else concentrated on complexity. If the police ever do discover how I did it, they will feel a bit foolish. And I even left a bit of a clue, which still remains in the area: I was back there this past summer.

, you have a wonderful city and I have enjoyed my stay. I own a house in the city and am delighted with the many cultural opportunities here. Indeed, I hope to remain in Atlanta for at least a few more years.

Again, whether or not you believe this is "the real thing" does not concern me. I am very much aware that it is & simply wished a bit of communication with the outside world. I might call you sometime in the future ... and if so, I have enclosed an index card with something typed on it: when I call, I will identify myself by what has been typed. In addition, you can be assured of only one "authentic" D.B. Cooper.

I wish you a Happy New Year and thank you for this opportunity to communicate after 10 years...

Dear

First, let me assure you: I am D.B. Cooper, the individual who completed the skyjacking in 1969. Of course, you -- and any of your colleagues -- may choose to disbelieve this: our society is comprised of individuals who, strangely enough, believe in that which is untrue, disbelieve in that which is fact.

Nevertheless, I have decided that it is time for a bit of communication. Somewhat rather smugly observing the minor fanfare my tenyear anniversary caused in the media this November, I suddenly realized that I wanted people to know I was still alive -- and that I had, in fact, successfully eluded the police and lived -- very nicely, I might add -- on the proceeds of my adventure.

I moved to Atlanta more than five years ago and began watching your newscasts. You seemed to have a "no-nonsense" approach to the news which I can appreciate -- and thus, when I finally decided to communicate w/ the outside world, you appeared the natural choice.

I'd like to clear up two items concerning my little event. First, I did it for the sheer sake of adventure, nothing more. And this adventure was both a mental & physical challange -- which leads me to my second item: how I eluded the police. While I shall not detail the incident -- at least not now -- I will say that it was a simple case of using simplicity when everyone else concentrated on complexity. If the police ever do discover how I did it, they will feel a bit foolish. And I even left a bit of a clue, which still remains in the area: I was back there this past summer.

you have a wonderful city and I have enjoyed my stay. I own a house in the city and am delighted with the many cultural opportunities here. Indeed, I hope to remain in Atlanta for at least a few more years.

Again, whether or not you believe this is "the real thing" does not concern me. I am very much aware that it is & simply wished a bit of communication with the outside world. I might call you sometime in the future ... and if so, I have enclosed an index card with something typed on it; when I call, I will identify myself by what has been typed. In addition, you can be assured of only one "authentic" D.B. Cooper.

I wish you a Happy New Year and thank you for this opportunity to communicate after 10 years...
